Two Pieces of Furniture in One

Cadillac
"Desk-Table"

Of all the devices marketed, conducive to home comforts, there is nothing so unique, economical and convenient as the Cadillac "Desk-Table" or Desk-Cabinet.

Just as the Kitchen Cabinet has proved a boon to the practical house-wife and replaced the kitchen table in the majority of modern homes, so is the "Desk-Table" doing away with the individual table and writing desk.

The "Desk-Table" occupies the space of but one article, and the cost does not exceed that of the high-grade table of ordinary construction. The ordinary desk occupies valuable wall and floor space.

Can you imagine anything more provoking than to sit down prepared to write a letter and find it necessary to remove from your library table books, photographs, magazines, drop light and other articles in order to provide a clear writing surface.

And this to be done after first locating pen, ink and and stationery which are peculiarly elusive at times when most desired.

Can you imagine anything more convenient than a combination Desk and Table such as the Cadillac when it is only necessary to extend the Desk without disturbing a single article on the Table Top; raise the lid of the desk-bed, which is hinged, and select your stationery. Pen rack and ink well are sunk flush with desk bed, this insures cleanliness and convenience.

The Cadillac "Desk-Table" is sold by us in Barre exclusively. Call and let us show you this 20th century piece of furniture.

About forty members of the University club and their friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Jackson of South Main street last night, for the opening meeting of the new school year, the purpose of the gathering being to get acquainted. The evening was passed enjoyably in a social way and various members of the company entertained with an impromptu program, after which refreshments were served.

A little pamphlet relating to employers' liability legislation and workmen's compensation legislation, under the title of "A Sketch of the Progress of Legislation Dealing with Industrial Accidents," has been prepared and published by S. Hollister Jackson of this city. The author has based his sketch on the New York state commission, which was appointed to report to the New York legislature in 1906. Mr. Jackson says that the treatment of the subject is necessarily brief in the pamphlet, but he trusts that it will fulfill its purpose, which was to encourage further study of the matters referred to.

MARSHFIELD.

Wedding of Miss Goldie Maude Smith to E. N. McCall of Brooklyn.

Miss Goldie Maude Smith, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smith of this town, and Ernest Nelson McCall of Brooklyn, N. Y., were united in marriage, at the M. E. church Wednesday, Sept. 21, at half after noon, by Rev. F. E. Currier, pastor of the church. The church was artistically decorated in green and autumn colors. The bride was beautifully gowned in white embroidered Brussels lace over white silk, wore a bridal wreath, and carried brides roses. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by Miss Lawrence Wooster of Barre. The groom was attended by Harley Renfrew of Peacham, as best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Mark Mears and the ushers were W. D. Smith of Boston, brother of the bride; Charles Lilley and B. W. Davis. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was given at the home of the bride. Refreshments were served with Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Davis, and Miss Grace Wooster in the dining room, and Mrs. Charles Lilley served punch. Mrs. Grace Carr was caterer. The bridal couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, including cut-glass, china, silver, linen, and a nice time-piece. Following the reception, the happy couple went to Montreal and down through the Thousand Islands by boat to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Among the guests were Roscoe Renfrew of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McCall of Regatte, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Morrison of Barre, Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Darling of South Regatte, Miss Mabel Hall of South Regatte, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gardner of Groton, Mrs. George Brown of Barre, and Harry Hall of St. Albans. The happy couple have the hearty best wishes of a host of friends here, where the bride has been known from birth, and lived until she was taught seven years. Mrs. McCall received her education at Goddard seminary in Barre, where she was graduated. Mrs. McCall was very popular among her young friends, was a member of the M. E. church choir. Several of the fun loving friends of the bride sought to give the usual send off, and accordingly, decorated several vehicles hoping to get the that which would convey them, but were out-done by the ordering of the auto. However, someone hastily telephoned the constable of the town, that an automobile running at a high rate of speed, had frightened someone, and wished the machine stopped. Accordingly, that man of the law, behold the offending machine in the distance, used the usual methods to stop, or hold up, an auto, but upon beholding the blushing bride, could only wish them happiness, and order the team loaded with corn out of the highway, and the machine went on.
